

Girl In Red - Forget Her

tom:

I spend all my days
 Trying to forget her face
 She's so hard to erase
 I don't think she can be replaced
 She stole my heart and ran away
 Left me with some things to say
 I don't understand
 She stole my heart and ran away
 I don't understand

I don't understand

I spend all my days
 Thinking of her embrace
 The way it slowly changed
 Some things will never fade

She stole my heart and ran away
 I don't understand

She stole my heart and ran away
 I don't understand
