tom:
Intro: D G C F7M

Why you no dey get my time?
Is there someone else?
You dey do me corny, oh
Everyday, new story, oh

Shey I just dey waste my time?
'Cause you don become someone else
Sip palava for me, oh
You no dey touch my body, oh

It feels good to love somebody and somebody loves you back
But it feels one-sided now (one-sided now)
It feels one-sided now
You don't have to pretend about it 'cause it's crystal clear
now, now (now, now)
Guess it's by? to the good times
I'll be gon? by the sunrise

I'll be better on my own
I'll be better on my own, na, na
Nobody should call my phone
Nobody should call my phone, na, na
This is my last heartbreak song
This is my last heartbreak song, na, na
I'll be good all on my own

I'll be good all on my own, na, na

Why are you so quick to leave (to leave)
When we both could make it work? (Work)
When I'm gone, I make you nervous (make you nervous)
If you hurt me, I deserve it (deserve it)
I've been actin' foolishly
Forgettin' what you're worth (forgettin', forgettin')
You stopped lovin' me, I noticed (I know, I know)
But even chaos serves a purpose

It feels good to love somebody and somebody loves you back (back)
So don't give in to your changed mind (your changed)
'Cause I'll be here for a lifetime (lifetime, lifetime)
You don't have to pretend about it 'cause it's crystal clear
now, now
Guess it's bye to the good times (times)
And I'll be gone by the sunrise

I'll be better on my own
I'll be better on my own, na, na
Nobody should call my phone (call my phone)
Nobody should call my phone, na, na
This is my last heartbreak song
This is my last heartbreak song, na, na
I'll be good all on my own
I'll be good all on my own, na, na
