When I was younger I saw my daddy cry and curse at the wind
 He broke his own heart and I watched as he tried to re-assemble it
 And my mama swore that she would never let herself forget
 And that was the day that I promised I'd never sing of love if it does not exist, but darling

Maybe I know somewhere deep in my soul that love never lasts
 And we've got to find other ways to make it alone or keep a straight face
 And I've always lived like this, keeping a comfortable distance
 And up until now I had sworn to myself that I'm content with loneliness
 Because none of it was ever worth the risk

I've got a tight grip on reality, but I can't Let go of what's in front of me here
 I know you're leaving in the morning when you wake up
 Leave me with some kind of proof it's not a dream, whoa
