

Gnash? - Lonely Again

Tom: C

Sometimes I cry
 Sometimes I die for you
 Sometimes I try
 Sometimes I lie for you

And at the end of the day, I feel broken
 Cause it's been a couple of days since we've spoken
 I don't know why, but I'd give my life for you
 Put it all on a line, I'd jump in the fire for you
 When you're lonely at night, I'm there on a dime for you
 And after all that you said, I was hoping
 That you'd be here in my bed, but I'm coping
 I don't know why, but I'd give my life for you

You said you would care
 You said you'd be there
 (Matter of fact)
 You said you'd be here
 So how come you're not here

Lonely again
 So lonely again
 How'd I get so lonely again
 How'd I get so lonely again
 I said I'm lonely again
 (I'm so lonely)
 How'd I get so lonely again
 (I'm so lonely)
 I think I'm lonely again
 (I'm so lonely)
 Would you come hold me again
