

God Help The Girl - Baby You're Blind

Tom: C

Verso 1:

Baby you're blind, if you just can't feel it
 I'll always keep my mouth in check
 Since you're cleared tied to me slightly to make it
 What's an ordinary girl to expect, oh, oh
 If you find her slipping,
 She doesn't love you like she used to do
 You're my first and always
 I wouldn't say I'm given to prayer
 But my head is bowed
 And then god knows how I really think of you.

Verso 2:

Baby I'm mad, when I see you walking
 I've only got seconds to spare
 I've got to be on call, look sensational
 Maybe there's a chance you'd care, oh oh
 If you see the real me,
 The one that doesn't shiver and shake, hey, hey

You're my first and always
 I wouldn't say I'm given to dreams
 But you came to me unexpectedly I don't want you to leave

Verso 3:

Baby, is March going to wait til april
 To let the situation change
 I've got a rented flat and a big fat cat
 Who's picking up on all the pain I feel
 Should I come between you
 Poisoning your world of bliss, hey, hey,
 I see you looking,
 You're wondering what it could have been like
 Take a boy like you only twenty two already caught for life
 Take a boy like you only twenty two already caught for life
 Take a boy like you only twenty two already caught for life
 Take a boy like you only twenty two already caught for life
