

Gogol Bordello - 60 Revolutions

Tom: C

It really bums me out that there are no really good tabs of this amazing song by this band. Here's the full guitar parts, tabbed by ear by John Ox:
Intro:
Intro: Chords (Listen for the strumming pattern, pretty simple)

And then...

Accordion (Transcribed for Guitar)

A E E
Sixty revolutions per minute

A
This is my regular speed

A E E
So how do you want me to live with it?

How do you want me to live with it?

Acordes

Chorus:

A E
Without ringing all alarms

E A
Without overthrowing czars

A E
Without emptying the bars

E
Without screwing with your charts

Then another verse, then the bridge

Then more stuff. Throw in the intro riff liberally. Bass follows the chords, which pretty constant through the whole song.

If you want to add a solo, use this scale.

That's about it.
