i met her sunday, that was yesterday the girl i knew from 1990 her eyes are hazel, her name is mable i kissed her once and now i'm able to walk the mile, crack a smile she makes me want to kiss all the babies, hug the puppy dogs she makes me feel like my mom smell the flowers and plant a tree i gotta say that mable

she's the bomb

she's the bomb

play intro riff 1x over g e c now it's monday, better than sunday mable told me that she would stay her curly hair shines in her eyes i heard she's going out with charlie she saw his package from what i know she said:

"that looks like a tube of cookie dough!"

small pencil with broken lead
