

Goldfinger - The Upper Hand

Tom: A

Verse

Since you've been 15 you've been confused
 At the age it's so hard to just be you
 You got your friends, your records
 The only thing that makes you feel whole
 You're trying to figure it all out
 Sometimes you realise the fight is oh so futile
 When someone else is telling you you're wrong

Chorus

You know your right
 But no one seems to listen,
 They say you're just a child,
 So you turn and fight,
 For me that is the only way
 To step to what they say is the upper hand,
 Don't let them take the upper hand
 Don't let them take the upper hand

Bridge Solo thing

You wanna go out and forget the day
 Go out and just make your life seem real
 Forget your mom and dad
 Forget about your job, your home, your school
 You take so much shit,
 Your girl said it's over
 You think about giving up
 But don't you dare give up without a fight

You know you're right
 But no one seems to listen,
 They say you're just a child,
 So you turn and fight,
 For me that is the only way
 To step to what they say is the upper hand,
 Don't let them take the upper hand
 Never let them take the upper hand
 The upper hand

It's the bonus track, in case you're interested!
 Also, it uses the same chord twice (Gb), which I've labeled Gb and F#
