

Goo Goo Dolls - Amigone

Tom: E

Intro: (E B Db Abm A E B ) E

Everytime you point your finger
 Three more point right back at you
 I'm not sayin' that it's something wrong with life
 'Cause that's a sad excuse
 And age old game of rat and mouse
 Chasin' us from house to house
 I'm not sayin' that there's something wrong with you
 It's wrong with me as well
 Are you alive
 Amigone (...Miracles gone wrong)
 Is it to late to call and tell you to be strong
 Are you alive
 Amigone (...Miracles gone wrong)
 Was the poison in our love there all along
 Amigone
 Heavenly intoxication
 Love's been marred by medication
 Ain't it funny how a life can take a turn
 When the end is near
 Are you alive

Amigone (...Miracles gone wrong)
 Is it to late to call and tell you to be strong
 Are you alive
 Amigone (...Miracles gone wrong)
 Was the poison in our love there all along
 Amigone
 I'm not sayin' that it's nothin'
 I ain't gonna play along
 I ain't wishin' for a miracle
 That miracle's gone wrong
 And you're too strong
 Amigone (...Miracles gone wrong)
 Is it to late to call and tell you to be strong
 Are you alive
 Amigone (...Miracles gone wrong)
 Was the poison in our love there all along
 Are you alive
 Amigone (...Miracles gone wrong)
 Is it to late to call and tell you to be strong
 Are you alive
 Amigone (...Miracles gone wrong)
 Was the poison in our love there all along
 Amigone
