

Goo Goo Dolls - Without You Here

Tom: C

Intro: Am C

Your love's a gathered storm, I chased across the sky
 A moment in your arms, became the reason why
 And you're still the only light that fills the emptiness
 The only one I need until my dying breath
 And I would give you everything, just to Feel your open arms
 And I'm not sure I believe anything I feel

There's nothing more without you
 Without you here

[INTRO] (2x)

And I'm trying to believe, in things that I don't know
 The turning of the world, the color of your soul

That love could kill the pain, truth is never vain
 It turns strangers into lovers
 And enemies to brothers
 Just say you understand
 I never had this planned

And now, now that you're near

Without you here > Refrão II

Without you here

My head lies to my heart, and my heart it still believes
 It seems the ones who love us are the ones that we deceive
 But you're changing everything
 You're changing everything in me
