Ab   Gm7   Fm
Oh joys are us the sun has come again too hold you
                                  Gm7
Sailing out the doordrums of the week
     Ab
The polyphonic prayers is here
    Gm7   Fm
It's all around you
                              Gm7
Its all around you, out here

Ab   Gm7   Fm
And if the whole world is crashing down on you
                                                          Gm7
Fall through space out of mind with me

                Ab   Gm7
Fm
Where the emptiness we leave behind on warm air rising
                                      Gm7
Blows all the shadows far away

     Ab   Gm7
The falling of the whole empire is here to hold you
Fm   Gm7
Roling out and haunted till it sleeps

(Ab Gm7) (3x)

Ab   Gm7
Little memories marching on
                                                                  Ab
Your little feet working the machine
                                                      Gm7
Say will it spin, will it soor
                                                                    Ab
My little dream working the machine

Ab   Gm7   Ab
Soon like a wave that pass will fall
                                  Gm7
And closing in on you they're going on (Ab Gm7) (2x)

Little memories your little feet working the machine
                                                      Gm7
Say will it spin will it soar
                                                                    Ab
My little dream working the machine
                                  Gm7   Ab
Soon like a way that pass will fall
                                  Gm7
And closing in on you they're going on
