

Gracie Abrams - 405

tom:
            [Primeira Parte]
I, I took the 405
I drove a hundred miles an hour to forget you
And I, blew through the traffic light
If I were to go tonight, I think I would regret you
You took the half of me, that I needed
             G
 And how'd you walk away so easy?
 ..
It's almost like you like to let me down
You took half of me, could you leave it?
 And go back to when we were speaking
 I hate the fact that I miss you around
[Segunda Parte]
Please, you won't even look at me
                Am
It's getting embarrassing, I'm crying to my family
Now I'm, I'm harder to recognize
'Cause I cut all my hair last night, while you think of me
[Refrão]

And how'd you walk away so easy? It's almost like you like to let me down You took the half of me, could you leave it? And go back to when we were speaking I hate the fact that I miss you around [Ponte] Tell me why, how the hell I slipped your mind You forgot me overnight Didn't even try to hide it All the while, lost my head and appetite You've consumed like all my nights Now I know it's unrequited C Dm 'Cause I, I took the 405 I drove a hundred miles an hour to forget you, mm [Refrão] You took the half of me, that I needed And how'd you walk away so easy?
