

Gracie Abrams - Blowing Smoke

tom:
Capo: Abm (forma dos acordes no tom de Em)
Intro: Em G C

Em G C
I cut the rope and you fell from the tower
Em G C
I let it go for my peace of mind
Em G C
Bit the bullet, it didn't hurt

But I still hate the image of you kissing her
Em G C
I chalk it up to 'it's all for the better'

D Em C
And I bet you're at her place right now
D Em C
You're taking off your shoes, she's lying down

Em G
Tell me is she prettier than she was on the internet?
C
Are your conversations cool? Like are you even interested?
Em G
I know what you are, brighter than the stars
C D7
Tell me if she takes you far
Em G
Far enough away from all the baggage you've been carrying
C
Up another hill to all the girls who help you bury it
Em G
They're just blowing smoke, I'll say what they won't
C D7
I know everything they don't

Em G C
I hear your voice, like a boom in my tower
Em G C
I sleep alone, I'm completely fine
Em G C
And you look stupid going out

G Em
If she's got a pulse she meets your standards now
G C
You feel nothing and yet you still let her

D Em C
But I bet you're at her place right now
D Em C
You couldn't point her out in any crowd

Em G
Tell me is she prettier than she was on the internet?
C
Are your conversations cool? Like are you even interested?
Em G

I know what you are, brighter than the stars
C D7
Tell me if she takes you far
Em G
Far enough away from all the baggage you've been carrying
C
Up another hill to all the girls who help you bury it
Em G
They're just blowing smoke, I'll say what they won't
C D7
I know everything they don't

Em G C
And I find your books pretentious now
D
At the time they fed the fantasy
Em G C
I was so impressed at your hotel
D
Took a drag and read aloud to me
Em G C
And you knew my last love let me down
D
It was your one perfect opening
Em G C
And I bet you think about me now when you should be sleeping
D

Em G
But tell me is she prettier than she was on the internet?
C
Are your conversations cool? Like are you even interested?
Em G
I know what you are, brighter than the stars
C D7
Tell me if she takes you far
Em G
Far enough away from all the baggage you've been carrying
C
Up another hill to all the girls who help you bury it
Em G
They're just blowing smoke, I'll say what they want
C D7
I know everything they don't

Em G C
I know, I know, I know, I know
D
And I know, I know, I
Em G C
I know, I know, I know, I know
D
And I know, I
Em G C
I know, I know, I know, I know
D
And I know, I
Em G C
I know, I know, I know, I know
D
And I know, I
