

Gracie Abrams - Fault Line

tom:
Capo: 2ª casa
Intro: C Em G G
C Em G G

[Primeira Parte]

You could go and I won't even feel it
Wouldn't hold up the road when you're Leaving
You're a bad holiday, you're the drug
That I take
When I want to forget how I'm feeling

[Refrão]

I know you're a fault line

But I'll break too
Cracking at the same time

Does it shock you?
When I'm down I fall right back to you
It happens
I know you're a fault line
But I'll break too
I will break too

[Segunda Parte]

You could go, and I bet I'd recover
Overnight, finish hurting each other
You feel, lightyears away
If I met you today, I would run to the Arms, of another

[Refrão]

I know you're a fault line

I know you're a fault line

But I'll break too
Cracking at the same time

Does it shock you?
When I'm down I fall back into you
It happens
I know you're a fault line
But I'll break too
I will break too

[Terceira Parte]

And all my imaginary friends are scared of
You
I've gone and cried to them in our Bedroom
Most nights I will pretend, I left this Sooner

[Refrão]

But, I know, you're a fault line

But I'll break too
Cracking at the same time

Does it shock you?
When I'm down I fall back into
You, it happens
I know you're a fault line
But I'll break too
I will break too
I will break too
I'd break too
