

Gracie Abrams - You Aren't Mine

tom:

Intro: C G

[Primeira Parte]

C
It's been good to know you
This goodbye felt worst of all

No defining closure
No instruction manual

If you thought to call me
I would answer every time

Breaking up is funny
I forget you aren't mine

[Pré-Refrão]

I forget you aren't mine

I forget you aren't mine

I forget you aren't mine

[Refrão]

Em
It's impossible to acclimate
Every time we talk we understate
How I know we both could die

We both could die
But you told me that you felt the same

When I told you how I needed space

But I think it was a lie

It was a lie

[Segunda Parte]

It's been tough to leave you

Every empty Sunday night

You come back in pieces

Every detail amplified

If you think to write me

It would go internalized

Breaking up is funny
I forget you aren't mine

[Pré-Refrão]

I forget you aren't mine

[Refrão]

Em
It's impossible to acclimate
Every time we talk we understate

How I know we both could die

We both could die

But you told me that you felt the same

When I told you how I needed space

But I think it was a lie

It was a lie

Em
And it's wild how it dissipates

How you're further from me everyday

This could be the worst goodbye

The worst goodbye

I don't even know what's left to say

Cause we called it back then anyway

Could you just remind why

Remind me why

[Terceira Parte]

It's been weird to miss you

Hits me at the strangest times

Seven years would cut through

Other people like a knife

If I try to meet you

Couldn't look you in the eye

Breaking up is funny

I forget you aren't mine

I forget you aren't mine
