

Gracie Abrams - You Aren't Mine

tom:

Intro: C G
[Primeira Parte]

C
It's been good to know you
This goodbye felt worst of all

No defining closure
No instruction manual
If you thought to call me
I would answer every time

Breaking up is funny
I forget you aren't mine
[Pré-Refrão]

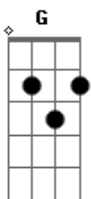

I forget you aren't mine
I forget you aren't mine
I forget you aren't mine
[Refrão]

Em
It's impossible to acclimate
Every time we talk we understate
How I know we both could die
We both could die
But you told me that you felt the same
When I told you how I needed space
But I think it was a lie
It was a lie

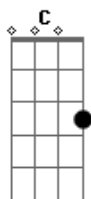

[Segunda Parte]

It's been tough to leave you
Every empty Sunday night
You come back in pieces
Every detail amplified
If you think to write me
It would go internalized

How I know we both could die
We both could die
But you told me that you felt the same
When I told you how I needed space
But I think it was a lie
It was a lie

Em
And it's wild how it dissipates
How you're further from me everyday
This could be the worst goodbye
The worst goodbye
I don't even know what's left to say
Cause we called it back then anyway
Could you just remind why
Remind me why

[Terceira Parte]

It's been weird to miss you
Hits me at the strangest times
Seven years would cut through
Other people like a knife
If I try to meet you
Couldn't look you in the eye

Breaking up is funny
I forget you aren't mine
I forget you aren't mine
