

Greentea Peng - Hu Man

tom:

Intro: Abm7 Ebm7 Abm

Searching for balance, praying for clarity

Ma stripped me naked, take this identity

Tell me it's unity

In Lak'ech Ala K'in

I am you, you are me

I wear clothes, I like to hide

So no one knows what I'm made from

Deep in my soul

Taken from home so far we stroll

Deep in these roads

Think we control this shit, we don't

But fuck we could, I wish we would Throw away these phones, get a bit more holy

See the world more slowly, ten test my roses

Searching for balance, praying for clarity

Ma stripped me naked, take this identity

Acordes

Tell me it's unity
In Lak'ech Ala K'in

I am you, you are me

See all I know is that I know

Nothing at all, this shit is so

Mystical, magical

I know we don't know our potential

How could we when they lie they cast spells

And they try dropping bombs from the skies

Like we are not stars

Inside me there's a war

Jai Maa, Jai Maa

Searching for balance, praying for clarity

Ma stripped me naked, take this identity

Tell me it's unity

In Lak'ech Ala K'in

I am you, you are me
