

Greg Holden - The Lost Boy

tom:

I left my home still as a child
 I walked a thousand soary miles
 To wait for my father, to gather up his tools

He said my boy you've got to run
 Don't wait for me, don't wait for mum
 We'll come get you, when it's safe for us to move

So I waited many years held back the pain behind my tears
 For my father, to come find me like he said

And in that time I was alone so many years without my home
 I made brothers of a different kind instead

Instrumental break:

And in the time I didn't know just how hard the wind could blow Towards disaster, and the things that I would see

I never found my father
 I never found my mother Even would I know in my lifetime I will be

A hero into the masses to those born without chances There's a freedom that everyone deserves

I know there's greed and there's corruption I've seen death and mass destruction
 But I'm telling you, and I hope that I'm heard

And I will not be commanded
 And I will not be controlled
 And I will not let my future go on without the help of my soul

And I will not be commanded
 And I will not be controlled
 And I will not let my future go on
 without the help of my soul

And I will not be commanded
 And I will not be controlled
 And I will not let my future go on
 without the help of my soul

I will not be commanded
 I will not be controlled
 And I will not let my future go on
 without the help of my soul
