Intro: C Em Bb F
C Em Bb F

The universe, she's wounded
She's got bruises on her feet
I sat down like I always did
And tried to calm her down
I sent her my warmth and my silence
But all she sends me back is rain, rain
The universe she's wounded
She's still got infinity ahead of her
She's still got you and me
And everybody says that she's
Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful, beautiful, beautiful
That she's beautiful, beautiful, beautiful, beautiful, beautiful
And everybody says
The universe she's dancing now,
They got her lit up, lit up on the moon

They got stars doing cartwheels all the nebulas on the tune
( Em Bb )
The universe she's whispering so softly I can hear all the croaking insects, all the taxi cabs, all the bum's spent change, all the boys playing ball in the alleyways
They're just folds in her dress
( Em Bb F )
The universe she's wounded
She's still got infinity ahead of her
She's still got you and me
And everybody says that she's
Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful, beautiful, beautiful
That she's beautiful, beautiful, beautiful, beautiful,
beautiful
And everybody says
And everybody says
And everybody says
( Bb F C )
Beautiful song, Love love love love
