

Guns N' Roses - Blues

Tom: G G

Tabbed By: MrFace Fill 1:

After failing to find a single tab on this song, i decided to set about it myself and produce one that i could play and that i could tab. So here's my shot, Rhythm Fill: not perfect, but close enough to have fun with.

Fill 1: Fill 2:

Fill 2: "I don't know what i just said dooo..."

Verse: "Everywhere i go i see yoooouu..."

This is played using simple chords (i think.. lol) Solo:

G, Am, Dm, A, C and D
Here's the rhythm..
A G Am
Here goes!!
It ain't perfect, especially the fast bits, but i think it's a good attempt at it. I think Finck (no pun intended) is, along with Buckethead, one of the most under-rated guitarists around today, this solo helps make me think (again, no pun intended) that.

"So now i'm wanderin' away..... Tryin' to find my way..." Fill 3:

Dm G Am Outro:

"Keep the feelings that i felt.. I save 'em for you and no one else" This is the bit after the Piano interlude. It carries into the "Oooh oh oooooh oh oh, woh baby" part.

G Am A G G D D A

Dunno lyrics to this bit.. Axl gabbles it a bit.. Same as first part "Ooooooooooh Ooooooooooh Oh.... Woh Baby"

C D The song ends on a G.
