

Guns N' Roses - The blues

Tom: G

Fill 2:

Fill 1:

"I don't know what i just said dooo..."

This is the little lead part over the intro chords

Fill 2:

"Everywhere i go i see yoouuu..."

This comes after the solo

Solo:

Verse:

Here goes!!

A G Am

"So now i'm wanderin' away..... Tryin' to find my way..."

A G Am

"Keep the feelings that i felt.. I save 'em for you and no one else"

A G Am

Dunno lyrics to this bit.. Axl gabbles it a bit.. Same as first part

G C D

"That's not scarlet on my feet, A change that's bitter sweet, That's Called the Blues"

Fill 1:

G G D D A

Rhythm Fill:

"Ooooooooooh Oooooooooh Oh.... Woh Baby"

The song ends on a G.

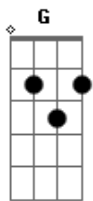

It ain't perfect, especially the fast bits, but i think it's a good attempt at it. I think Finck (no pun intended) is, along with Buckethead, one of the most under-rated guitarists around today, this solo helps make me think (again, no pun intended) that.

Fill 3:

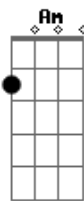

Outro:

This is the bit after the Piano interlude. It carries into the "Oooh oh oooooh oh oh, woh baby" part.
