

Gustavo Bertoni - Apathy Dance

Tom: G

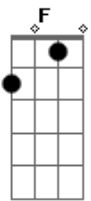

It's time to let go
 But I won't let it die here, oh
 All I wanted was a dance from your apathy
 In the corner of my eye, I see a smile
 It's been hiding for too long
 For a while, now
 Only if you knew how well it suits you
 You would leave it on, you know you would
 It's time to let go
 But I won't let it die here, oh
 All I wanted was a dance from your apathy
 A stranger you know
 As you look in the mirror
 For a while

All I wish for is a light upon all this fear
 Everybody watches as you glow
 But everyone who loves you sees right through
 You have built a life that's not your own
 And now you only try to catch the wind
 It's time to let go
 But I won't let it die here, oh
 All I wanted was a dance from your apathy
 A stranger you know
 As you look in the mirror
 All I wish for is a light upon all this fear
 (Em F Em F C)
 (Em F Em F C)
 In the corner of my eye, I see a smile
 It's been hiding for too long
 For a while
