

Gustavo Bertoni - Daydream

tom:
Dm
 It's all in the eyes, girl
 Don't even need to know what you'd say
 Wrap your arms around me
 Cause I don't wanna waste a day
 Is it all in my head, now
 Or is it a daydream?
 If it's a daydream
 Don't wanna wake up
 It's all in the eyes, boy
 You don't even need to recall my name
 All I need are memories

Pieces of a fragment burnt
 Let it dissipate quietly
 Just like a daydream
 If it's a daydream
 Don't wanna wake up
 Offline
 The texture nostalgia
 The human amalgama
 It feels like a dream
 Is it all in my head, now
 Or is it a daydream?
 If it's a daydream
 Don't wanna wake up
