

Gustavo Berton - Midnight Train

Tom: C

C Am Em F Dm Am
 Girl, you know I've waited for this day

F Am G Dm
 I was stuck on a puzzle, I drowned in the pouring rain

C Am
 You reached out to me, you showed me the way

F Am G Dm
 Your fears, like mine, they took the midnight train

C Am Em F Dm Am
 Now so much of me is in your hands

C Am G Dm
 And my burden's is yours to hold, as yours is mine

F
 Call for me, my lover

Ab7
 When your nights are gone astray

Am C
 Every now and then we'll need a savior

Dm C
 Every now and then we'll need a hand

Am C
 When you feel your bedroom walls a'crumbling

Dm C
 Don't you dare to feel that you're alone, no

C Am Em F Dm Am

C Am
 You've been there where light seems faraway

F Dm
 Your shadow behind me but I couldn't see

C Am
 Reaching out for something we don't know

F Dm
 Holding on to what we still don't have

F
 Call for me, my lover

Ab7
 When your nights are gone astray

Am C
 Every now and then we'll need a savior

Dm C
 Every now and then we'll need a hand

Am C
 When you feel your bedroom walls a'crumbling

Dm C
 Don't you dare to feel that you're alone, no

F Fm
 I guess we found each other in the dark

Am Am
 I guess we found each other in the dark

Ab
 I guess we found each other

C Am
 Girl, you know I've waited for this day
