Intro: C Am Em

C Am
It slip between your fingers, out of grasp

Em
You are vain

C Am
To hold yourself so high - you'd never match

Em
Far from sane

Am Em
I would like to know

Am G Am
I would like to know where you've been

Em C
To know where I'll go

G Am
And I'll lay down my arms

Em C (Em G)
If you open up yours

C Am
Even when you write an honest song

Em
You are vain

C Am
You try and pick only the greatest words

Em
It brings you pain

Am Em
I would like to know

Am G Am
I would like to know where you've been

Em C
To know where I'll go

G Am
And I'll lay down my arms

Em C
If you open up yours

G Am
When you like what you see

Em C
You don't countenance me

G Am
If you're all in your head

Em C
Then I'll never be near

D
A crow rests in the tree, swinging by the balcony

It's staring right at me, I can't believe

G Em
I'm starting to break down

Just another sip, anomalously, it offers me

Some liquid, bitter, dark
A starry night surrounding thee

C
No, it cannot be, my enemy, what I've become

Voices in my head, I'm seeing red, it's made me numb

D B
The fall I am about to face is now the only thing that has any beauty left

G Em
In awe with all of this break down

C Am
It takes so much to see within ourselves

Em
We are vain

C Am
Vain for living life far from our self

Em
We have no names

Am Em
I would like to know

F7M C Dm
I would like to know where you've been

Am F
To know where I'll go

C Dm
And I'll lay down my arms
