It's not like I'm invisible
 You still wear me under your skin
 When we talk, we don't talk at all
 Too weak to leave, too stubborn to give in
 Who is gonna be the first to say a truce
 It's not enough that we should part can't stop fighting too

 We don't let go, we can't get close
 I still need you, and you still need me
 This tug of war can't go on anymore
 Nobody wins from this misery, freeeeeeeeeeeeeeee
 Well oh can't you see, I wanna be, I want you to be, free

 It's not like she isn't loving you
 It's just that you can't be alone for too long
 I'd like to wish you all the happiness
 Maybe the truth is, it will kill me if you move on
 Who is gonna be the first to say enough
 Who is gonna be the first one to find true love

We don't let go, we can't get close
 I still need you, and you still need me
 This tug of war can't go on anymore
 Nobody wins from this misery, freeeeeeeeeeeeeeee
 Well oh can't you see, I wanna be, I want you to be, free

 Let it be, let it be just a beautiful memory
 Anything that starts will have an ending
 Let it go, let it go, yeah cause we both know
 This will only be over when we're free
 Yeah, Oh, when we're free
 Oh, I know, oh

 We don't let go, we can't get close
 I still need you, and you still need me
 This tug of war can't go on anymore
 Nobody wins from this misery, freeeeeeeeeeeeeeee
 Well oh can't you see, I wanna be, I want you to be, freeeeeeeeeeeeeeee
 I wanna be, I want you to be, oh can we be, free
 Oh I wanna be free
