

Haley Reinhart - Wasted Tears

Tom: C

Intro 2x: Dm Am

G
Left all alone
I'm not ashamed to say I had a cry
Been looking back
I lost my head but I don't know why
Turns out that every night all I cried
Was wasted tears yeah

I can't erase
Can't get back another yesterday
If I knew then what I knew now
I would have walked away

Am
It's so hard to breathe when love's buried alive, alive, alive

Dm
Boy you really made me look a fool
You stole my heart and left it black and blue
But I can see now that the clouds are clear
I've been cryin' wasted, wasted tears
So take your promises get on your way
I'm burning memories up in flames
'Cause I can see now that the clouds are clear
I've been cryin' wasted, wasted tears

I swear the Earth
The universe was falling from the sky
You built me up, to let me down a broken lullaby

Am
I kind of want you to feel what it's like to break, break,

break

Dm Am
Boy you really made me look a fool
You stole my heart and left it black and blue
But I can see now that the clouds are clear
I've been cryin' wasted, wasted tears
So take your promises get on your way
I'm burning memories up in flames
'Cause I can see now that the clouds are clear
I've been cryin' wasted, wasted tears

Am
Had me crying
You were lying
Hmmm I was dying
That's not love, that's not love
Had me crying, crying
You were lying, lying
I was dying, dying
That's not love, that's not love

Dm Am
Boy you really made me look a fool
You stole my heart and left it black and blue
But I can see now that the clouds are clear
I've been cryin' wasted, wasted tears
So take your promises get on your way
I'm burning memories up in flames
'Cause I can see now that the clouds are clear
I've been cryin' wasted, wasted tears

G E F
