

Halsey - The Great Impersonator

tom:

Intro: G Am F Am
G Am F Am

[Primeira Parte]

G Am
No one has to know
F Am
I could always hide
G Am
But sometimes it might get to me
F
The things and all their minds
G Am
But they don't know I'm lonely
F Am
And they don't know I'm kind
G Am F
Or scared that I can't hack it with the current paradigm

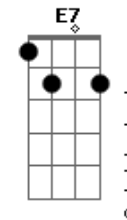

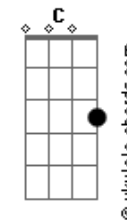

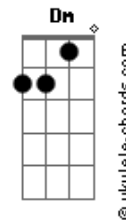

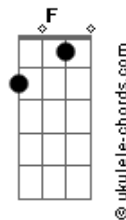

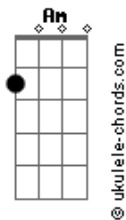

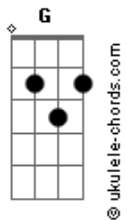

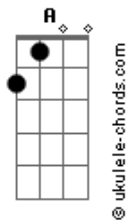

[Pré-Refrão]

Am
Every single line
G
Every single rhyme
F
Every single truth I sing
G
Once started as a lie
Am
I promise that I'm fine
G
But then I redesign
F Dm G
And put myself together like some little Frankenstein

[Refrão]

C E7
Ah-ah
F G C
Does a story die with it's narrator?
E7
Ah-ah
F G C
Surely it's forgotten soon or later
E7
Ah-ah

Acordes

F G C
Hope they spell my name right in the paper
E7
Ah-ah
Dm G F
In here lies The Great Impersonator

[Post-Refrão]

G Am F Am
Mm-mm

[Segunda Parte]

G Am
I'm lying in a car crash
F Am
In a pile of broken glass
G Am F
It's funny how it looks like glitter from the overpass
G Am F
I'm in a pick-up truck, the door is stuck
Am G Am F
I'm sinking in the water and the girl inside is waving
Am
But the people just applaud her

[Pré-Refrão]

G
This is a cry for help, callin' for assistance
C E7 F G
But you can't tell I need it watchin' from a distance
