Way down in West Virginia there's some people who are one of a kind

They don't need nothing from nobody, 'cause they're already doin' fine

You got Hasil Adkins hunching and Mamie is raisin' hell

And the legend of D. Ray White will never die like a rebel yell

And ol' Jesco's dancin' in his daddy's shoes

Yea ol' Hasil's still hunchin' out them Boone county blues

And ol' Mamie, you know she's done some time in jail

And the legend of D. Ray White will never die like a rebel yell

Bertie Mae White, She's the strongest woman that I've ever met in my life

She raised over 24 of her own and had to watch her husband die

She's always fightin' hard and living off the land

And when she's done livin' in this world, you know the Lord's gonna take her by her hand

And ol' Jesco's dancin' in his daddy's shoes

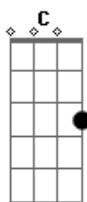

Yea ol' Hasil's still hunchin' out them Boone county blues

And Mamie, you know she's still raisin' hell

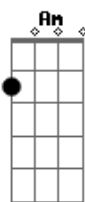

And the legend of D. Ray White will never die like a rebel yell

And the legend of D. Ray White will never die like a rebel yell
