

Hannah Telle - Hollow Glow

tom:

G
 This is me saying farewell
 Dm F G
 To all of those who live to sell
 F G
 There must be more of life for me to see
 Dm F
 Than famous folks and hippie parties
 F G
 Desperation, drugs and vanity
 Dm F G
 Give me something real, tangible and free

F G
 Hollow glow
 Dm F C
 What do you have and who do you know?
 F G
 Hollow glow
 Dm F C
 Sometimes the hardest thing is learning to say no

F G
 Traveled far from all that's dear to me
 Dm F
 Sold my soul to feel more free
 F G
 Bought my friends, forgot my family
 Dm F
 Addicted to cacophony
 F G
 Falling further with each passing year
 Dm F C

Feeding in self-celebratory fear
 F G
 Hollow glow
 Dm F C
 What do you have and who do you know?
 F G
 Hollow glow
 Dm F C
 Sometimes the hardest thing is learning to say no

Dm
 But these blues won't seem to pass
 F
 And this pain it holds too fast
 Dm F
 My dreams, they all died a decade ago
 Dm F
 I'm older now but I can't let go
 Dm F
 Of who I thought I'd be
 Dm F C
 It's all too much for me

F G
 Hollow glow
 Dm F C
 What do you have and who do you know?
 F G
 Hollow glow
 Dm F Dm
 Sometimes the hardest thing is learning to say no
