

Hanson - Don't Even Love Her

Tom: D

(I. Hanson / T. Hanson / Z. Hanson)

[Intro:] D A Em G

I've told you a thousand times
 She is the end of the end of the line
 You will know her every sign
 Cos you're blinded by the sparkle in her eye

You don't even love her
 You need to find another
 How could you love her
 When you're not set free?

You don't even love her
 But you keep it under cover
 You don't even love her
 But you make believe
 Don't give me one more lie
 You've been telling yourself to just survive
 She loves you; you want her to need you
 Every promise you see through just open up your eyes
 You got to quit make believing try betting on me
 It's just make believing
 You gotta quit your deceiving
 You gotta set yourself free it's just make believe
