

Hanson - Great Divide

Tom: B

[Intro:] Abm Db B
Abm E

Abm E Abm
The earth is shaking under siege
Every breath will meet its fate
Still we hunger for a moment of freedom
Even though the hour is late

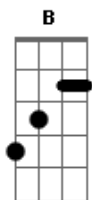

Gb Abm
I find hope and it gives me rest
I find hope in a beating chest

I find hope in what eyes don't see
I find hope in your hate for me
Have no fear when waters rise
We can conquer this great divide
When every eye is on the fortune
When a look can only breed contempt
When you see blood is thicker than oceans
Still we box some brothers in

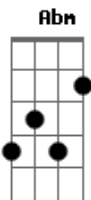

Solo: Abm Gb E Dbm Gb

Abm E
End is gone, end is gone
Am I holding on, am I holding on, am I holding on
