

Hanson - In a Way

Tom: C

I. Hanson / T. Hanson / Z. Hanson

[Intro:] Am G D F

On the ^C third ^G floor of the hotel
 There's a pregnant Flamenco dancer
 In the bathtub is a razor
 And she's planning a great escape

But in a way she's giving up on herself ^{Am} ^G ^{D F}
 But either way she's giving up some of herself ^{Am} ^G ^{D F}

In the backyard there's a small boy
 Playing soldiers with an army ranger
 In the front room there's a mother
 And to the small boy she's a stranger

Love is only what you give up ^{Dm} ^{Dm} ^G
 Life isn't what you get ^C ^G ^{Am}
 Love won't always fill your cup ^{Dm} ^{Dm} ^G

Life's when you start to live ^C ^G ^{Am}
 Life's when you learn to give ^C ^G ^F

When I leave here I'm gonna go home
 To the small boy and the flamenco dancer
 Leave the guitars in the spotlight
 I'm gonna go home to my biggest fans

But in a way I'm giving up some of myself ^{Am} ^G ^{D F}
 But in a way isn't that what it's about ^{Am} ^G ^{D F}
 But in a way I'm giving up some of myself ^{Am} ^G ^{D F C G D F}
 But either way isn't that what it's about ^C

Love is only what you give up ^G
 Life isn't what you get ^D ^F
 Love won't always fill your cup ^C ^G
 Life's when you start to live ^D ^F
 Love is only what you give up ^C ^G
 Life's when you learn to give ^D ^F
