

Hanson - One More Time

Tom: F

( I. Hanson / T. Hanson / Z. Hanson )

One more time, one more place
 One more chance for me to look upon your face
 One more dream, one last embrace
 Don't just leave me without a trace
 This morning we were moon and sun
 There was no doubt you were the one
 How did it turn around so suddenly

We were happy, we were sad
 Did we have less than I thought we had
 What happened to make you say you're leaving me
 You were the very air I breathe
 I'm dying now, I can't believe
 I'm never gonna hold you close again
 Let me be with you once more
 Then I'll let you walk out the door
 And accept that this could really be the end
 Don't tell me it never mattered
 Give me one last chance, one more night
