[Intro:] A E G D

A E G
Not so long ago in a toy room not so far away

Lived a boy who had so many toys

A E
And he didn't know what to do with them all

G D
With them all, with them all

Well his favorite of all the toys were
The tin soldiers, the tin soldiers
And the one that he loved the most
Was the one with the missing leg

At night the toys would come alive
Or that's how the story is told
And there they met, the soldier with the missing leg
And the ballerina with the heart of gold

At night they would share each other's dreams
Under the stars shining bright
But they were to shy to speak of love
To speak of love

One day the boy sat him on the window sill
To watch for the enemy coming over the hill
But when the wind it blew it knocked him into the street
And the boys from the town they said

A G D
Won't you look at the one-legged soldier

A G D
Let's stick him in a boat and send him far away

A G D
'Cause I can't find a use for a soldier

A G D
With a missing leg
C Am Em

And he was lonely, so lonely for a friend

C Am E
And he was lonely, so lonely for a friend

As he floated past a river raft on his homemade boat
Well his boat began to sink, and he sank to the bottom of the river

He got swallowed by a fish, caught by a fisherman
Sold to the family of the boy who had the toy

And the cook said look at the one-legged soldier
It looks just like the one we lost the other day
Could this be the boy's tin soldier
With the missing leg?

And he was lonely, so lonely for a friend
And he was lonely, so lonely for a friend

As he sat on the mantel place to dry form the river
The ballerina who held his heart sat by his side
And when they got up to dance with each other
They fell by the fire blazing bright

When he jumped to save her from the flames
Their bases began to melt into one in the same
And now they share each other's destiny
Together forever they will be

And they are no longer lonely for a friend
And they are no longer lonely for a friend

A E G
Well he had a ballerina and a one-legged soldier,

D
Stuck together at the base

And they share each other's destiny

G D
As they sit on top of the mantel place

A E G D
It's the story of the one-legged soldier

A E G D
The story of the one-legged soldier

A E G D
The story of the tim soldier with the missing leg
