Intro: Gb Bbm Ebm Db B
I've been going through the motions
                                                                                                                                                        Fbm
Learning how to pretend
                                                                            Db
That everything is perfect
And I've been sinking in an ocean
Drowning but I'm silent
                                                                       Db
Yet everyone thinks I'm afloat
I'm running through mazes, mazes % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right)
Maybe it's just a phase but regardless
                                                                 Db
                                                                                                                                                                                   В
I'm flipping the pages, pages
I'm going through changes
But I swear I'm the same
Could you show me some patience
Along the way?
                                                                                                                                                                                     Gbm
I'm going through changes
But I swear I'm the same
Could you show me some mercy
If I start to stray?
I've been chasing aft?r feelings
```

Most of which are fleeting
I still feel empty
And I've been trying hard to fit in
But how com? I'm so different
    Db B
From everyone I see?
I'm running through mazes, mazes
Maybe it's just a phase but regardless
                   Ebm
I'm flipping the pages, pages
I'm going through changes
                 Bbm
But I swear I'm the same
Could you show me some patience
Along the way?
I'm going through changes
But I swear I'm the same
Could you show me some mercy
              В
If I start to stray?
Trying to fight the seasons
Trying to find my meaning
              Fbm
Maybe there's a reason
Why I'm going through these changes
```
