

Hello Stranger - Little Old Me

tom:

Intro: Gm D Gm
Gm D D7

Gm
Oh, by the way the way they came in
D
With neon shirts and spray-paint grins
Gm
But I don't mind the subtlety they lack
D
I care more about the envy they attract

Gm
And oh, oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Gm
And they're lucky the old days are gone and done
Because in those days bastards were thrown in the mud

Gm Bb
I said something's gone wrong, but I cannot see
F C
They're lucky they're just dealing with little old me
Gm
Because something's gone wrong
Bb
Just listen to see
F
Their folded arms embrace the cold
C
But that's just little old me
( Gm D )

Gm
Oh, by the way they stare at the band
You can see their applause were kept in their cans
Gm
I know our temple isn't much to behold
But take off your shoes in this holiest of holes

Gm
And oh, oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Gm
And they're lucky the old days are gone and done
Because in those days bastards were thrown in the mud

Gm Bb
I said something's gone wrong, but I cannot see

F C
They're lucky they're just dealing with little old me
Gm
Because something's gone wrong
Bb
Just listen to see
F
Their folded arms embrace the cold
But that's just little old me (c'mon)
( Gm C Gm C )

Gm
There's nothing I've been looking for
There's nothing I've seen I haven't seen before
Gm
There's nothing I've been living for
There's nothing I've done I couldn't do for more
Gm
There's nothing I've been looking for
