

Heloise Amorim - Unchained

Tom: G

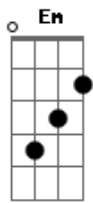

We've always been chained all along , weapons fire , cutting down on all of us Looking up we can see the enemy , We march foward screaming bodies fall, they're rotting on the sun and teasing Conciencie is a gift we all must spread , with the rest
 The time has come face your destiny , on all sides more allies are gathering Things don't change, It always stay the same , be at peace a new era is beginning We've always been fooled all along , freedom is an ilusion They've tricked all of us , feasting and drinking You have no choice to go or stay, stay togheter , the enemy is bleeding
 While innocents burn
 - Em
 Now we will make them carry the blame on their back
