

Henrique Machado - Someday

Tom: B

I could not imagine
 I did not want to understand
 If you stopped talking to me
 How could I forget?
 I want you as much as I know
 I can not have you
 I want you so much
 And I'm sorry you do not want to

Someday
 You will need company to live.
 Someday
 You will need joy and will see
 (It was not me)

What I wanted was to find
 Everything you've lost
 It would be easier to start over
 By a path that is not mine
 I want you as much as I know
 I can not have you
 I want you so much
 And at the same time I want to forget you

Someday
 You will need company to live
 Someday
 You will need joy and will have
 But it's not me who's going to give you
 You left me
