

Hey Monday - Candles

Tom: G

Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb

Eb (intro) C G Em D

(solo)

The power lines went out
 And I am all alone
 But I don't really care at all
 Not answering my phone
 All the games you played
 The promises you made
 Couldn't finish what you started
 Only darkness still remains

Lost sight
 Couldn't see
 When it was you and me

Blow the candles out
 Looks like a solo tonight
 I'm beginning to see the light
 Blow the candles out
 Looks like a solo tonight
 But I think I'll be alright

(C G)

Been black and blue before
 There's no need to explain
 I am not the jaded kind
 Playback's such a waste

You're invisible
 Invisible to me
 My wish is coming true
 Erase the memory of your face

Lost sight
 Couldn't see
 When it was you and me
 Blow the candles out
 Looks like a solo tonight
 I'm beginning to see the light
 Blow the candles out
 Looks like a solo tonight
 But I think I'll be alright

One day
 You will wake up
 With nothing but your 'sorry's'
 And someday
 You will get back
 Everything you gave me

Blow the candles out
 I'm beginning to see the light
 Blow the candles out

End on the and let it ring.
