

High School Musical: The Musical: The Series - Born To Be Brave

tom: F Don?t need a king I?ve got my crown Don?t need a hero To the lift me off ground I built this heart It?s beating loud Won?t let no bad blood Ever bring us down Keep flying higher Fight like a fighter What if I?m everything That I Will ever need A queen messiah A strong survivor Even the worst days Won?t get the best of me ?Cause I was Born to be brave I know who I am inside And I won?t apologize Made my mistakes And they gave me wings to fly To my castle in the sky (F Bb F Bb) I used to feel Like I was lost It?s like my phone?s Navigation was turned off But it?s the road I stumbled on That led me right To the place where I belong Keep flying higher Fight like a fighter	Yeah I am everything That I was meant to be A blazing fire That?s getting brighter Don?t need nobody here That don?t believe in me ?Cause I was Born to be brave I know who I am inside And I won?t apologize Made my mistakes And they gave me wings to fly To my castle in the sky Let my hair down and let it go No more running I run this show Way up here, yeah the view is gold Born to be brave Now I?m standing miles high Like castles in the sky Bosses and queens stand up on your throne Know who you are this your kingdom Legends at heart individuals Go make your mark be original (F Gm Dm Bb) ?Cause I was Born to be brave I know who I am inside And I won?t apologize Made my mistakes And they gave me wings to fly To my castle in the sky Let my hair down and let it go No more running I run this show Way up here, yeah the view is gold Born to be brave
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

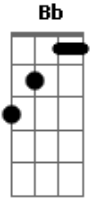

Now I'm standing miles high ^{Dm}
Like castles in the sky ^{Bb}

Like castles in the sky ^{Bb}
[Final] F Bb F Bb

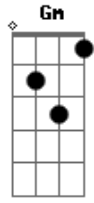

Acordes

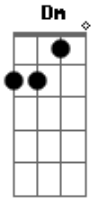

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com