

High School Musical: The Musical: The Series - Speak Out

tom:
Capostrate na 3ª casa

I call my dad, but never talk
Can't ever say quite what I want
No, it's never enough, never enough
When the words just don't add up

So I call my dad, and never talk
I'm so sick of my past breakin' me like glass
Shackled by my emotion

I keep sayin' I'll change, keep stayin' the same
Can't seem to let it go, so

Speak up, speak out
I'm screamin' out but I don't make a sound, no
Gotta get up, go now

Don't wait for the moment just to keep missin' out, yeah
All my excuses, I overuse them every time I open my mouth
For all the times I never knew how
To speak up, I, I'll speak out

( G D Em C )

My walls, they know the worst of it
Sometimes we gotta knock 'em down
I wish they could say the things I can't admit
Just gotta let it out

Tongue-tied, kept my lips shut, forget it, so what?

Now I gotta face the feelin'
I keep sayin' I'll change, keep stayin' the same
Can't seem to let it go, so

Speak up, speak out
I'm screamin' out but I don't make a sound, no
Gotta get up, go now

Don't wait for the moment just to keep missin' out, yeah
All my excuses, I overuse them every time I open my mouth
For all the times I never knew how
To speak up, I, I'll speak out

Don't wanna walk away from this
Don't wanna be a sinkin' ship
The anchor on my tongue won't let me swim
Don't wanna waste a moment more
Don't know what I've been waitin' for I'll never get a chance like this again

So Speak up, speak out
I'm screamin' out but I don't make a sound, no
Gotta get up, go now

Don't wait for the moment just to keep missin' out, yeah
All my excuses, I overuse them every time I open my mouth
For all the times I never knew how
To speak up, I, I'll speak out
