

Hippo Campus - South

```
tom:
                                                               [Ponte]
               Ab (forma dos acordes no tom de G )
Capostraste na 1º casa
Intro: G C D G C
                                                               G7M
                                                               You go down south, south
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                   G7M
                                                               You go down south, south
                                                                   C7M
Three leagues down the soft side of where you left my
                                                               You go down south, south
                                                                   C7M
Gold rose crown, you broke down, and left me with a
                                                               You go down south, south
                                                                   G7M
 Chest hum, a black gun, and forty dollars
                                                               You go down south, south
Chest hum, a black gun, and forty dollars
                                                               You go down south, south
                                                                   C7M
[Segunda Parte]
                                                               You go down south, south
                                                                   C7M
                                                               You go down south, south
Three weeks down, I drowned myself in whiskey
                                                                   G7M
                                                               You go down south, south
Came back round, and drowned out, and left me with a
                                                                   G7M
                                                               You go down south, south
Chest hum, a black gun, and forty dollars
                                                                   C7M
                                                               You go down south, south
Chest hum, a black gun, and forty dollars
                                                                   C7M
                                                               You go down south, south
Ooooh, oooooh, ooooooh
                                                               [Final]
(G C D)
                                                               Streetlights talk the same way my mother told me
[Refrão]
                                                               (You go down south, south)
                                                               I walk the same way my father told me
Streetlights talk the same way my mother told me
                                                               (You go down south, south)
I walk the same way my father told me
                                                               Back straight, chest out, just like a soldier
                                                               (You go down south, south)
Back straight, chest out, just like a soldier
                                                               Back straight, chest out, just like a soldier
Back straight, chest out, just like a soldier
                                                               (You go down south, south)
Wise men talk the same way my mother told me
                                                               Wise men talk the same way my mother told me
                                                               (You go down south, south)
I walk the same way my father told me \,
                                                                                      D
                                                               I walk the same way my father told me
Back straight, chest out, just like a soldier
                                                               (You go down south, south)
Back straight, chest out, just like a soldier
                                                               Back straight, chest out, just like a soldier
                                                               (You go down south, south)
                                                                              D
Ooooh, oooooh, ooooooh
                                                               Back straight, chest out, just like a soldier
                                                               (You go down south, south)
```

Ooooh, oooooh, ooooooh

Acordes

