I get dark sometimes

Back up, back when we were so innocent

Oh, this emotion that we're buried in

Tied up, fired up on this adrenaline

[Pré-Refrão]

How am I supposed to be your ray of light?

Your ray of light?

Not a cloud in sight

What a perfect night

I should be your ray of light

Your ray of light

But that's not me

[Refrão]

But I'm falling

Falling asleep at the wheel

Guess I forgot how to feel

Just for a second you're talking

But I'm just pretending

You have my attention

I'm falling

Falling asleep at the wheel

I made you think it was real

If you think we're strong enough

Come on and wake me up

[Final]

Wake me up

Wake me up, wake me up

If you think we're strong enough

Come on and wake me up

Wake me up, wake me up
