

Holly Humberstone - Falling Asleep At The Wheel

```
Back up, back when we were so innocent
Oh, this emotion that we're buried in
Tied up, fired up on this adrenaline
[Pré-Refrão]
How am I supposed to be your ray of light?
Your ray of light?
Not a cloud in sight
What a perfect night
I should be your ray of light
Your ray of light
But that?s not me
[Refrão]
But I?m falling
Am G F
Falling asleep at the wheel
Am G F
Guess I forgot how to feel
Just for a second you?re talking
But I?m just pretending
You have my attention
I?m falling
Falling asleep at the wheel
I made you think it was real
If you think we?re strong enough
Come on and wake me up
[Final]
Wake me up
Wake me up, wake me up
If you think we're strong enough
  Come on and wake me up
Wake me up, wake me up
```
