 Dm
 Don't leave me alone

I said You had me in your arms but I fell through the grasp
 But yep I had You in my heart but I guess I relapsed
 Like I'm livin' for the wrong reasons, through the seasons
 Tryna fall for you but then they put me on blast
 It's like I try to speak my mind because I know that I'm His
 And yep I try to speak my mind but it don't fly with them kids
 Man if I'm not talkin' bout the newest Nikes or releases
 They put the mute on me
 I can't speak about my Jesus?
 Like I'm living for Him
 I'm slippin' to sin
 I turn around and make the amends
 I try to fit it
 I mess it up and stumble again
 I'm takin' this pen
 And writing everything so I remember just how sweet that it is Yeah man I got issues I can't even lie
 My only saving grace is knowing I got You inside
 I'm done with (saving face) I ain't gotta thing to hide
 So don't leave me alone
 Keep coming day and night
