 I sit back and think about the life I've had

 So much to change but I can't go back

 What happened to that kid? He used to play in the street
 G
 I think about that kid, he looked just like me
 C
 Had a smile, had a home, never grow old
 Em
 When we grow up, do we have to grow cold?
 Am
 Spent his whole life looking for salvation
 G
 Never realized nobody could save him
 C
 So all these words for what they're worth
 Em
 I know it's hard, I know it hurts
 Am
 And we laugh at the past 'cause it's how we learn
 G
 Welcome to the world, now let's watch it burn

[Refrão]

[Segunda Parte]

C
 Sometimes it's hidden, wish that I could see
 Em
 A future picture of an older me
 Am
 Would he be smiling and would he be happy?
 G
 Would he say a thousand words while looking right at me?
 C
 Is he different or the same old me?
 Em
 Is he still chasing after these same old dreams?
 Am
 I know that I'll never reach perfection
 G
 At least he could point me in the right direction
 C
 Some grow old, and some grow cold
 Em
 They'd sell their souls for a heart of gold
 Am
 God only knows where the hell would I be
 G
 If I had the old me sitting beside me
