

Hoobastank - If I Were You

Tom: G

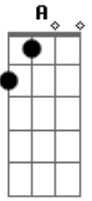

You seem to find the dark, when everything is bright
 You look for all that's wrong, instead of all that's right
 Does it feel good to you? To rain on my parade
 You never say a word, unless it's to complain...

It's driving me insane
 If I Were You, holding the world right in my hands.
 The first thing I'd do, is thank the stars for all that I am...
 If I Were You
 and so on ...
