

Hoobastank - More Than A Memory

Tom: G

Album: Every Man For Himself
Tuning: Standard

RATEOMMENT

The only thing you have to Figure out in this tab is the struming and your all set.

There is a 2nd guitar in this song but its pretty obvious when it comes in and what its playing

Note-The first cord of the chorus is actually started on the word so. You just play last cord untill then

UPDATE-I changed the intro just a little bit, and a special thanks to jaames
Intro:

Pre Verse

Verse

I've become tired Of Wasting my time
Thinkin' bout choices That I've made
Cuz i can't move forward While looking behind
The only thing I can do now is change the way
That I use to be
Cuz now it's seems Crystal clear to me

Chorus

Cuz you're so much more Than a memory
Cuz you're so much more Than a memory

Verse

It wasn't fair For me just to go
Act like I knew what you've been though

Cuz I wasn't there And I'll never know

Couldn't see from your point of view but I'm doing all I can

For you to see that I understand, that I understand

Chorus

Cuz you're so much more Than a memory
Cuz you're so much more Than a memory
So don't close my door On what still can be
Cuz you're so much more than a memory

Bridge

Please don't go cuz I finally know
That the past is gone and I was wrong and i was wrong

Chorus

Cuz you're so much more Than a memory
Cuz you're so much more Than a memory
So don't close my door On what still can be
Cuz you're so much more than a memory

Please don't go cuz I finally know
That the past is gone and I was wrong
Please don't go cuz I finally know
That the past is gone and I was wrong I was wrong

OOING!!! Hell YEAH!

Outro

And thats it have fun
