

Houston Calls - High Rise

tom:
G
 I'll save this for late night
D
 A cup of coffee and a long walk through the park
 Down from this rooftop
Bb
 I see the pond and the great lawn through the dark
Eb
 Just when should I tell you
 That's always been the toughest part
C Bb
 I know how it ends but not how it starts
Eb
 So this is how I choose to bring this around
 That's all for now

Ab
 I'm running out of time
Bb
 Just tell me how to make this right
Eb D C
 Because I'm sick of planning ways to make you mine
Ab
 Recounting all the lines
Bb
 I'd give to your expectant eyes
 But I failed to see the signs

Eb D
 It's not the first time
 That my thoughts would get the best of me
Bb
 So I'll keep to myself
 And just keep on thinking wishfully
Eb D
 I know that this won't help
 I need to say this to your face
Bb
 We both know this talk won't take place

 So this is how I choose to bring this around
 That's all for now

Ab
 I'm running out of time
Bb
 Just tell me how to make this right
Eb D C
 Because I'm sick of planning ways to make you mine
Ab
 Recounting all the lines
Bb
 I'd give to your expectant eyes
 But I failed to see the signs

Eb
 Don't bother to tell me
 This time I can see in your eyes
 That I'm caught in between perfect lies and an impossible dream

Ab
 I'm running out of time
Bb
 Just tell me how to make this right
Eb D C
 Because I'm sick of planning ways to make you mine
Ab
 Recounting all the lines
Bb
 I'd give to your expectant eyes
 But I failed to see the signs

Eb
 So this is how I choose to bring this around

Ab
 I'm running out of time
Bb
 Just tell me how to make this right
Eb D C
 Because I'm sick of planning ways to make you mine
Ab
 Recounting all the lines
Bb
 I'd give to your expectant eyes
 But I failed to see the signs
